Kazakhstan 1

Why...?

- Fascinating country: crossroads of Asia
- Size of Europe but only 16m people
- Former Soviet Union meets Asia meets Islam meets a Turkish language and cultural influence meets yurts and mountains= a weird and wonderful mixture
- Almaty is an interesting and attractive city: tree lined; close to the mountains, laid back...great if you like trekking and outdoors

WHY NOT... ?

Where and What...?

- KIMEP: a private university in central Almaty; specialises in Management, Economics and Social Sciences
- KIMEP and University of Bath have a Memorandum of Understanding (2010)

Other Possibilities 2

– http://delasalle.ulsa.mx/sitio\_ciel/

– Spanish Language and Culture and other 4 week summer programmes such as: Education in Mexico, Global Media in Mexico, Criminal Justice in Mexico, Public Health in Mexico, Doing Business in Mexico

Note on Travel to Mexico

Here's the FCO advice for Mexico as a whole. It only advises against travel to Ciudad Juarez in the north.

<http://www.fco.gov.uk/en/travel-and-living-abroad/travel-advice-by-country/north-central-america/mexico1>

I think Mexico City is relatively safe compared to northern cities but does come with the risks of any large Latin American city with fairly high levels of crime (probably on a par with Sao Paulo). This course is run in the Condesa district of Mexico City which is a 'nice area'

Funding, Visas and Insurance

- Various scholarships available to cover in-country costs
- Usually student is expected to raise money for flights, visa, insurance and local travel
- No funding available from the International Office
- Apply to the Alumni Fund

- You need to take out private travel insurance such as Ensleigh
- Some (limited) visa guidance from Student Services 4W
