

28. TITLE OF PROFESSOR EMERITUS

- 28.1 In accordance with the provisions of Section 19.17 of the Statutes Senate may, on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor, confer the title of Professor Emeritus on any Professor of the University at or after retirement in recognition of services to the University of Bath, provided that the Professor in question does not already hold a similar title from another institution.
- 28.2 In exceptional circumstances, Senate may be invited to confer the title of Professor Emeritus on a Visiting Professor whose attachment to the University has ended.
- 28.3 A Professor Emeritus is a Member of the University and a life Member of the University Court. Other than these statutory provisions, a Professor Emeritus has no rights or responsibilities within the University but may be invited on the recommendation of a Board of Studies to take such part in the academic work of the University as the Board may determine from time to time.
