Finalists

Finalist Decision code	Explanation of decision code
D-YNC	The Programme Board has not yet recommended an end of stage decision to the Board of Studies, because you have not undertaken all your modules for this stage.
D-YNC_DF	It is not possible to consider you for an award yet as you need to complete the stage by attempting your deferred assessments. Units with deferred assessment are indicated with a grade of D. You must take this deferred assessment to be eligible for an award and so you are expected to attempt this during the upcoming supplementary assessment period in August. You will be considered for an award again once the outcome from your deferred assessment is known. The Board of Examiners have also considered whether you are required to take any unit re-assessment to be eligible for your award. Units requiring re-assessment have grades of FR, NS, QR or M. If you cannot take deferred assessment in August, you can defer for a second time using the exam deferral process. This could affect your ability to meet your award requirements and delay your graduation. Please note that you can only defer an exam twice (and retain the same attempt number) and deferred assessment from 2020/21 must be attempted by the end of 2021/22. If you do not take deferred assessment a new unit result using an assessment mark of ONS will be calculated. A 0D will be on your record of assessment but will not appear on your transcript. If you need further help understanding your results and what your next steps should be please contact your department.
D-YNC_S2	The Programme Board has not yet recommended an end of stage decision to the Board of Studies because not all of your module results have been completed.

P-AWD_D	You have met your programme's requirements for an award and the Board of Studies have awarded you a degree. Under the University's 2020/21 no-detriment measures you can still take the assessments you deferred in the supplementary assessment period if you wish, but you are not required to take these. Units with deferred assessment are indicated with a grade of D. You cannot take re-assessment for failed/condoned units. Should I take deferred assessment even though I have my award? If you do... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. A new unit result will be calculated, and a new transcript issued.</li> <li>2. A 0D will remain on your record of assessment but not on your transcript.</li> <li>3. You can still attend your graduation ceremony in July 2021 (if you have registered your interest to attend)</li> <li>4. If your degree classification changes, the original award will be rescinded (revoked) and a new certificate issued. You will not be able to attend another graduation ceremony.</li> </ol> If you do not... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The 0D will remain as the assessment mark and appear on your transcript.</li> <li>2. The unit grade will be updated to reflect that it was passed/failed/condoned with outstanding deferred assessment.</li> </ol> If you want to take your deferred assessment but cannot do so in August, you can defer again for a final time using the exam deferral process. Deferrals from 2020/21 must be attempted by the end of 2021/22. Further help understanding your results is available on the web, alternatively contact your department.
