How To Search This Document

You can search for your academic decision code on this page by pressing Ctrl+F (on a Windows PC, Chromebook, or Linux system), or Command+F (on a Mac) on your keyboard. On your phone (which is best viewed in landscape), you should have a 'Find on page' option in your browser menu.

Useful Information

You can get further help understanding your results from our Understanding Your Results web page.

Your Personal Tutor or Director of Studies will be the most appropriate person to advise you on your specific academic circumstances and you are strongly encouraged to contact them if you need advice. You can also get advice from support staff in your department/faculty or the School as well as advice from the SU Advice & Support Centre.

If your outcome is a potential or automatic transfer to a Designated Alternative Programme/Course (DAP/DAC) you can find details about the alternative programme/course alongside your current programme in the Course and Unit Catalogue. If you are a visa holder, please talk to the Student Immigration Service about how a change of programme might affect your visa.

Your Academic Decision Code

The codes listed here are divided into three sections:

1. Undergraduate and postgraduate decision codes for final (previously MAB affected) decisions.

2. Undergraduate decision codes for non-MAB affected decisions and interim (MAB affected) decisions.
3. Postgraduate decision codes for non-MAB affected decisions and interim (MAB affected) decisions.

Each academic decision code is followed by a full explanation of what the code means.
