

Architectural apprenticeship

Master of Architecture and
PG Certificate in Architectural Practice
4.5 years duration.

Part 2: 3 years

Year 1	Year 2	Year 3
Semester 1: based in your practice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Practice 5 • Professional studies, management, practice and law. 	Semester 1: study at the University of Bath <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Design studio 6.1 • Research paper. 	Semester 1: based in your practice.
Semester 2: study at the University of Bath <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Design studio 5 • Environment and sustainability 5 • History and theory 5. 	Semester 2: based in your practice.	Semester 2: study at the University of Bath <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Design studio 6.2.
Summer: based in your practice.	Summer: based in your practice.	Summer: based in your practice.
		Master of Architecture (Part 2) award

Part 3: 1.5 years

Year 4	Year 5
Semester 1+2: based at your practice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Practice and project management (taught in two blocks at the University of Bath in Sept and March with exams in May). 	End-point Assessment (EPA) Gateway.
	October – March Workplace <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Case Study Report supported by Design Challenge • Professional Interview supported by Career Appraisal. End-point Assessment.
Summer: based in your practice.	Architect apprenticeship award – PG Certificate (Part 3) award