GENERAL INTRODUCTION

PROVENANCE

The Collection was donated to the Library by Dr Michael Carley, Secretary of Bath Trades Union Council, in 2023.

BRIEF HISTORY OF BATH TRADES UNION COUNCIL

Bath Trades Union Council (also known as Bath Trades Council) was founded on 2nd February 1891 to strengthen and support the cause of trade unionism in the city and district of Bath. Its aims included securing fair wages and working conditions for all workers, bringing about the amicable settlement of disputes between workers and their employers, advocating for beneficial legislation and educating the public on trade matters. Composed of delegates elected by local branches of trade organisations paying an annual subscription fee, by 1908 groups affiliated to Bath Trades Union Council included bookbinders, bricklayers, miners, engineers, railway workers, musicians and shop assistants.

DESCRIPTION OF THE COLLECTION

The material is presented in the order given in the contents list. It covers the period from 1893 to 2012 and mainly comprises a set of handwritten minute books but also includes photographs, memorabilia and an accounts ledger.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We are grateful to Dr Michael Carley and to Bath Trades Union Council for their assistance in making this material available.

SECTION B MINUTES OF MEETINGS 1893-1979

This section contains minutes of meetings of Bath Trades Union Council. Meetings generally took place once or twice a month, though sometimes more frequently when required. The minutes provide a record of attendees and a brief summary of discussions and actions. They also give a more general overview of the Council's operations, priorities and achievements over time. A huge range of subjects relating to the working life of the city of Bath as viewed by the Trades Union Council are represented from disputes with employers, housing and holiday allowances to poor relief, tram fares and women's suffrage.

For the minutes of meetings of Bath Trades Union Council from February 1891 to December 1892 see the Hollingworth Collection (Section B), Archives & Research Collections, University of Bath.

The presentation is chronological.
