GENERAL INTRODUCTION

PROVENANCE

Mrs Marion Woodard donated the collection to the Library in two parts in April 2014 and September 2015.

DESCRIPTION OF THE COLLECTION

The collection was assembled over several decades by husband and wife, Graham and Marion Woodard, both active members of the UK judo community. In 1982 6th dan Marion Woodard became the first British female judo referee to receive a continental licence. She went on to obtain an international licence in 1990. During a long career as a judo referee, she officiated at over 50 tournaments and competitions in 24 countries, as well as five world and sixteen European championships. She also served as a member of the British Refereeing Commission of the European Judo Union (1995-1996). Between 1978 and 1984 Marion Woodard was Assistant Team Manager to the GB women's judo squad.

Together the Woodards built a substantial collection of judo-related posters, programmes and publications. Their judo-related journals, including runs of titles such as Judo Bulletin and British Judo, have been added to the Library's larger collection of judo books and publications donated by Richard Bowen. The material presented here comprises mainly posters and programmes covering almost 50 years of women's judo at national and international level. It documents the development and growth of competitive judo for women, recording the organisation and promotion of major judo events, the achievements of individual judoka, and the communication of an evolving sport to a worldwide audience.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We are very grateful to the Woodard family for their assistance in making this material available.
