

18th CR@B Symposium

A showcase of presentations highlighting our multi-disciplinary approach to cancer research

16:45 – 20:00 Wednesday 14th November 2018
Milner Centre Seminar Room - University of Bath

Programme

- 16:45 – 17:00 Registration
- 17:00 – 17:10 Opening note
- 17:10 – 17:30 How cancer cells metastasize
Professor Anne Ridley, Head of School and Professor of Cell Biology, School of Cellular and Molecular Medicine, University of Bristol
- 17:30 – 17:50 Investigating the experiences of post-traumatic growth in individuals with advanced or metastatic cancer
Dr Helen Seers, Research and Evaluation Lead, Penny Brohn UK
-
- 17:50 – 18:10 Refreshments and Networking
-
- 18:10 – 18:30 Radiochemistry for immunoPET
Dr Graham Smith, Team Leader, The Institute of Cancer Research
- 18:30 – 18:50 Research at the RUH
Dr Tim Craft, Director of Research and Innovation, Royal United Hospitals Bath NHS Foundation Trust
-
- 18:50 – 19:20 Refreshments and Networking
-
- 19.20 – 19:40 Targeting YAP/TAZ as a novel therapeutic strategy in cutaneous squamous cell carcinoma
Dr Gernot Walko, Lecturer, Department of Biology and Biochemistry, University of Bath
- 19:40 – 20:00 Technology and clinical progress in Urological cancer
Mr Jaspal Phull, Urological Surgeon and Cancer Lead, Divisional Governance Lead for Surgery, Co-Chair South West Strategic Cancer Network (SWAG region) Urology SSG, Royal United Hospitals Bath NHS Foundation Trust