The Faculty

Introduction to the Faculty – Welcome from your Director of Programmes

As Director of MRes Programmes within the Faculty of Humanities & Social Sciences, I would like to extend a warm welcome to all new MRes students. The Faculty is one of three faculties and one school in the University which offers a range of innovative courses at undergraduate and postgraduate levels.

We are confident that the rich mix of opportunities offered will make studying at the University of Bath exciting and stimulating. You will benefit from the experiences of leading academics in your field and also from being part of a large, diverse and international student community.

The Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences is committed to providing a student experience of the highest standard, and during this year we will be asking you how effective we are in meeting your needs and fulfilling your aspirations. I urge you to participate in this conversation and use every opportunity to let us know how we can improve the quality education we provide.

This Handbook contains material specific to MRes courses at the University.

Dr Samantha Curle

Director of MRes courses

Cross-Faculty information including course teams

Each of the MRes courses is led by a Director of Studies (DoS) from the appropriate Department. Your Director of Studies is responsible for all aspects of your study, including problems and requests for extensions.

Your DoS is supported by a Departmental Programmes Administrator. These are the primary contacts for MRes students.

Information regarding the department, including a list of academic staff, their individual research interests, departmental research activities, events (including seminars you may be able to attend) and news items, can be found on the Department webpages below.

Academic Advisor (formerly known as Personal Tutor)

At the start of 2024/25 the role of Personal Tutor was renamed Academic Advisor to better reflect the nature of the role.

When you join the University, you are assigned an academic staff member as an Academic Advisor. They will act as a personalised point of contact throughout your time here, supporting your transition, and your academic and personal development. It is important to respond to communications and requests from your Academic Advisor, and to attend scheduled meetings.

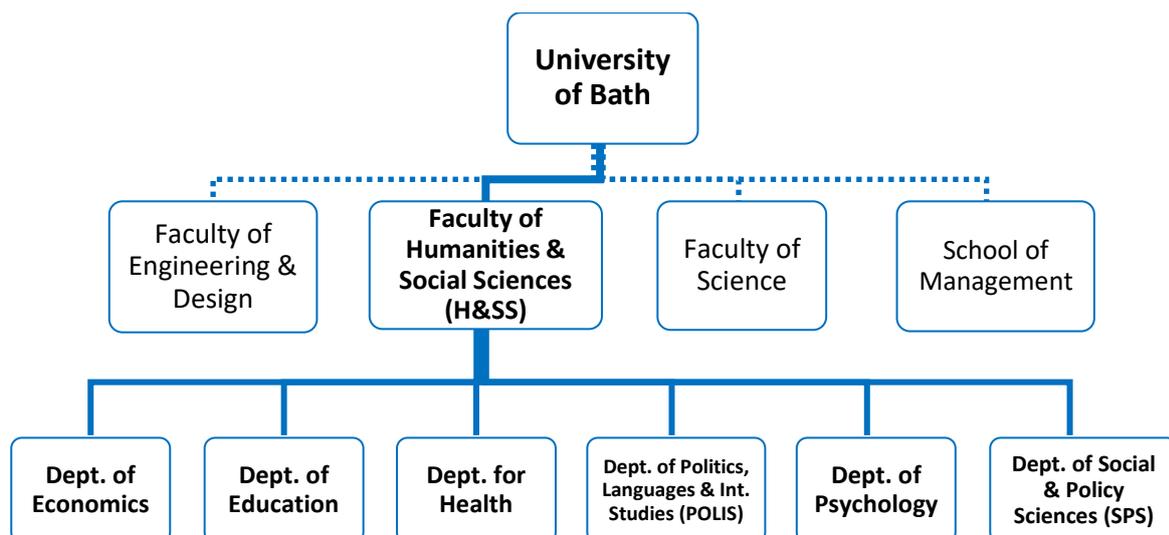

Your Academic Advisor should arrange to meet with you on three occasions during your first semester and offer at least one meeting per semester on an ongoing basis for the remainder of your studies. Your Academic Advisor can provide information and guidance about:

- your transition into the University community and your academic studies
- unit choices and future career plans
- sources of support with any personal matters or situations involving your health and wellbeing that may be impacting your studies
- providing you with a reference for work experience, internships, your placement, further studies, or career.

Learning and Teaching delivery

Timetables

Using MyTimetable, you can access your personal timetable and download it into an electronic calendar. MyTimetable updates regularly, so should there be a change to your timetable, it will be reflected.

Any ad hoc changes to your teaching schedule will be conveyed to you via the Announcement forums on Moodle and /or relayed by email using course and unit mailing lists.

Learning resources, Moodle, and recorded lectures

All learning resources for each unit are available on the Moodle platform. Please check that you can access all relevant units for your course on Moodle and if not, please contact the MRes Programmes Officer.

Option choices

If your course has option choices, then information about how and when to choose your optional units can be found online. If applicable, you will receive an email notification at the relevant point in the year when online unit selection is available. If you want to discuss your option choices, please contact your Director of Studies.

Department prizes

The Masters of Research courses are demanding masters degrees that require students to perform well in a variety of disciplines. In 2023 the MRes programmes introduced two prizes to be awarded at Graduation for the following:

- The Prize for highest overall average is awarded to the student with the highest overall programme average across MRes programmes in the Faculty.
- The Dissertation Prize is awarded to the student with the highest Dissertation mark across all MRes programmes in the Faculty.

Research ethics

For the most up-to-date information about Ethics, please refer to Ethics@Bath, the new research ethics management online system. Find out more here (Bath login required). You will be introduced to the Ethics application system in Semester 1.

Student Representation

Mechanisms for student representation are designed to enable you to be an active partner in continually improving your learning and teaching experience. The main ways in which your feedback will be sought will be through:

- Staff/Student Liaison Committees (SSLCs) (Academic and Faculty Reps)
- surveys and evaluations
- the Students' Union

Assessment

Assessment Regulations

The Postgraduate Taught Assessment Regulations (PGTAR) set out the rules for your course including: how the University governs your outcomes; progression requirements and what happens if you fail; award eligibility and how your classification is calculated. If your course has any exemptions to the Postgraduate Taught Assessment Regulations, you will find this information in your course specification. You are expected to familiarise yourself with these.

Supplementary assessment

Supplementary assessment describes the type of assessment you will be expected to undertake either to retrieve failure in a unit's main assessment or in the case of deferred assessment.

More information on the timing of supplementary assessment is provided in PGTAR. Supplementary assessment may be held during the summer (August). You may be required to return to Bath to sit any in-person supplementary exams during the August supplementary assessment period.

Exit awards

If you leave the University early, without completing your course, you may be eligible for an exit award. You will find information on these awards in your course specification.

Switching courses

If you are considering transferring to a different course, where this would be permitted, you should speak to your Director of Studies in the first instance. In certain circumstances you may be able to or may be required to transfer onto a specific alternative course, known as a Designated Alternative Course (DAC) if you have not met the criteria to remain on your current course of study.

Academic Registry have also published further information and guidance on assessment arrangements. This also includes a link to the University's Academic Integrity Training and Test. All students will be unable to progress beyond the next progression point in their studies until they pass the test. The test has a pass mark of 85% but you can take the test as many times as you need to.

Individual Mitigating Circumstances \(IMCs\)

We acknowledge that you may experience circumstances that disrupt your assessment attempt or performance. Submitting an IMC claim allows you to report any conditions which prevented you from taking assessment or significantly impaired your performance. If accepted an IMC recognises that your assessment was affected.

You are expected to familiarise yourself with the information available about IMCs including the process for submission, the evidence requirements, how claims are considered and what can (and cannot) happen if a claim is accepted as valid.

Coursework

Assignment briefs, word counts and deadlines

Students will normally receive the following information about an assessment task:

- its weighting in calculating the mark for the unit
- the assessment criteria, and any grade criteria relevant to the subject
- the timing, nature, and extent of feedback they can expect and whether this is to be accompanied by the return of assessed work

Students will receive clear and accurate information which sets out the expectations of the assessment task(s). This will normally include:

- the requirements of the assessment task(s)
- the word limit/range, and the penalty for non-compliance. If a penalty policy is not stated in writing the University default policy will apply
- any specific requirements of professional, regulatory, or statutory bodies
- any special presentation or referencing preferences/requirements
- the date for submission of the work
- the dates when any further detailed information about the individual task(s) will be communicated and how they will be communicated
- for in-class tests, information on the conditions under which the test will be conducted (e.g., open-book) or other specific requirements
- whether the work is to be submitted anonymously

Coursework tasks will normally have a word limit or word range. This, and the penalty for not adhering to this, will be confirmed when you receive an assignment. Markers may stop reading/marking your work at the point it exceeds the word/page limit.

Coursework extensions

If you find you are facing circumstances that are preventing you from submitting on time, you can request an extension to your deadline before the work is due. Short extensions are often granted but occasionally there may be a better measure to support you depending on your individual circumstances and the type of assessment. You will need to give a brief explanation of how your circumstances are impacting on your ability to complete on time. Extension requests require evidence to confirm what has happened and when.

Should you wish to seek an extension for Coursework, please contact your Director of Studies who will be able to support you in creating a request. Length of extensions and additional support will be discussed to support each student individually.

Further Information on Coursework extensions can be found here-

<https://www.bath.ac.uk/guides/coursework-extensions/>

Late submission of coursework

To ensure fairness to all students, you will be expected to hand in all assessed coursework and dissertations/projects by a specified date and time, and there are penalties for submitting work after the specified deadline. If you are experiencing difficulties completing work on time, please seek help before the deadline.

Examinations

There are three formal assessment periods during which examinations take place, January, May and June, and August.

Should you require additional support regarding examinations, please contact your Director of Studies or the Unit Convenor.

Marking and feedback

We have in place processes to ensure that assessment is conducted and marked in a fair and rigorous manner which upholds the academic standards of the University. You can find further information about such processes, and their purpose, on our website.

Assessments you will complete during your course are marked according to:

- marking criteria (or assessment criteria) - these are the knowledge, understanding and skills that students should demonstrate in the assessment. They are based on the learning outcomes being assessed.
- marking schemes - these are detailed descriptions of how specific numbers of marks should be assigned against individual components of an answer within the assessment task
- grade descriptors - these are descriptions of the levels of achievement required in order to get a result within a given band of marks (e.g. 70% or more).

Learning outcomes for unit assessment can be found in the Unit Outline on the Moodle page for the unit or by contacting the Unit Convenor. Any feedback on assessments can be directed to your Director of Studies in the first instance.

Your course

Programme and Unit Catalogue

This is where you will find details about individual units for the current academic year. The catalogues also provide links to the relevant assessment regulations.

Course Specification

Course Specifications set out important key information about your course, including the award title, the intended learning outcomes, and the structure of the course, as well as regulations for meeting the requirements for any exit awards, and any agreed exemptions from your Assessment Regulations. You are expected to be familiar with this document and its contents.
