Synopsis and academic coherence of programme
This programme is designed to provide Honours degree status to students who have achieved Intermediate level qualifications through the University of Bath Foundation Degree in Sport (Sports Performance) or equivalent. Planning and delivery incorporate a blend of resources across the programme to prepare students for longer-term leadership and management roles. The Honours year builds on the existing knowledge and understanding students have developed through the Foundation Degree Sport (Sports Performance) (or equivalent qualifications) and provides opportunity to further sport performance aspirations with alternative vocational experiences.
Educational aims of the programme
Whilst the work-based learning principles of the Foundation Degree remain, the primary aim of this course is to 'add value' by preparing students for potential, longer-term leadership roles in the workplace. At its heart is a subject-based project that will embody the full life cycle from conception, design and planning, through organization, execution and management, to delivery, reflective review and objective assessment of the outcomes. Taught material supports the course ethos by: a) advancing knowledge through higher-level, subject-specific studies in areas of particular current relevance; b) engendering appropriate management, organisational, evaluative and team-building skills; and c) providing a firm basis for the effective research, assessment and presentation of evidence, arguments and assumptions, so as to enable sound judgments to be reached. Particular stress is placed on the timely and appropriate application of knowledge and problem-solving skills in a work-place environment.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Knowledge & Understanding: 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> demonstrate an understanding of the application of research methods in the context of their professional practice using a case study, or action research project; describe a coherent project design, locating and reviewing literature from appropriate fields, identifying suitable methods of data collection, techniques of analysis and ethical considerations for research into professional practice; comment on a selection of recent research into the study of sports performance in different settings; evaluate the implications of research findings on policy and practice; appreciate the limits of current knowledge and practice in the field of sports performance; demonstrate an understanding of sports performance in a management context.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Intellectual Skills: 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> engage in critical analysis of a wide range of texts and electronic information; synthesise information from a number of sources in order to gain a coherent understanding of research, policy and practice; critically evaluate arguments, assumptions, abstract concepts and data, to make judgements, and to frame appropriate questions to achieve a solution or identify a range of solutions to a problem; reflect on the appropriateness of theory, practice and outcomes; apply the methods and techniques that they have learned to review, consolidate, extend and apply their knowledge and understanding, and to initiate and carry out projects with skills in data analysis (qualitative and/or quantitative where appropriate); communicate information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialist and non-specialist audiences.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Professional Practical Skills: 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> understand the application of relevant research findings in the workplace; apply sports performance skills appropriately to facilitate clients' progress towards their goals; reflect upon own academic and professional performance and take responsibility for personal and professional learning and development; observe and evaluate own skills and those of others and give clear and appropriate feedback;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • apply leadership skills in the workplace and demonstrate an understanding of sports performance in a management context.

Admissions Criteria including APL/APEL arrangements
Candidates for the Honours Year will be expected to have successfully completed a University of Bath FdSc Sport (Sports Performance) programme. Applications will be considered in competition with others and based upon the number of places available. Students will normally have achieved a minimum average grade profile of at least 55%. It is the student's responsibility to identify and agree a suitable work-based learning environment with their tutor in which they can carry out the Work-based Research Project. This must be in place at the time of admission. Admission may be subject to interview. Exemption through AP(E)L may be granted in accordance with University procedures up to a maximum of 24 credits. For units accredited through AP(E)L it will be necessary to award a unit mark which will carry forward to the overall mark for purposes of classification. AP(E)L will be permitted for whole units only.
Details of Support Available to Students

University of Bath students attending programmes of study at the Claverton Campus are usually encouraged to stay in University halls of residence during their first year and will be supported in their transition into University life and study by Resident Tutors. These are postgraduate students or staff who live in the halls of residence and are responsible for the general welfare, health and safety and discipline of student residents.

All taught students will be allocated a Personal Tutor and postgraduate research students a supervisor who are responsible for monitoring and supporting the academic progress and general welfare of their students.

Staff in these roles will be able to respond to many of the questions and concerns raised by their students. However, there is also a range of specialist student support services that will offer both information and advice to support these staff working with their students, as well as take referrals to work more directly with the students. Students can also self-refer to these services.

These services can provide information, advice and support in relation to accommodation, emotional difficulties, assessment of needs and provision of support relating to disability, student funding, general welfare, academic problems, student discipline and complaints, careers, international students, spiritual matters, part time work, security and personal safety. The Students' Union can also provide advocacy for students. More information about these services can be accessed via: <http://www.bath.ac.uk/students/support/>.

There are also Medical and Dental Centres, and a Chaplaincy on campus that are very experienced in meeting the needs of a student population, as well as a University nursery and vacation play scheme to provide childcare for older children during the school holidays.
