

New Framework for Assessment: Assessment Regulations (NFAAR) Version history

Phase 1 for undergraduate programmes (NFAAR-UG)

The New Framework for Assessment: Assessment Regulations: Phase 1 for undergraduate programmes (NFAAR-UG) approved by Senate on 9 April 2008 is a document designed to accommodate certain types of change which may become necessary. These might include any correction or simple clarification that is identified, editorial updating for the reporting of the granting of exemptions, and the incorporation of the results of development work agreed by the University. The following list is provided to track such events.

Version 000	9 Apr 2008: NFAAR approved by Senate.
Version 001	11 Apr 2008: One minor correction in para. 1 of each of Appendices 27, 28, 29, 30.
Version 002	28 May 2008: Additions to the list of exemptions in Appendix 10.
Version 003	30 Jun 2008: Changes made in accordance with decisions taken by Senate on 11 Jun 2008, to clarify the provisions for the scaling of marks (Appendix 8), to specify revised provisions for supplementary assessment (Appendix 7), and to extend the scope of the NFAAR to include the Master of Architecture with honours programme in its classified form (passim), with related minor clarifications.
Version 004	17 Jul 2008: Addition to the list of exemptions in Appendix 10.
Version 005	2 Nov 2009: Minor revisions throughout to provide references to new principles and procedures for the consideration of Individual Mitigating Circumstances (IMCs) in relation to assessment, as approved by Senate on 21 Oct 2009. This involved: minor changes to terminology; amendment of Appendix 9; and changes to cross-references to Appendix 9.
Version 006	1 Aug 2010: Revised to be published as NFAAR-UG, separate from NFAAR-PGT which was approved by Senate on 4 Apr 2010 to extend the scope of the NFA to postgraduate taught programmes.
Version 007	1 Aug 2011: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Appendix 1 (Integration of the NFAAR with University Regulation 15) and Appendix 2 (Definitions) both revised for consistency with extended scope of the NFA to included Foundation degree, Honours Year, and Continuing Professional Development framework programmes (NFAAR-FD, NFAAR-HY, NFAAR-CPD), as approved by Senate on 8 Jun 2011.2. Appendices 11–14 and 19–22 and associated text under “Award of credit” and in Appendix 2 (Definitions) under “Whole stage repeat (WSR)” revised to limit the normal availability of the opportunity to repeat a whole stage to once per stage, with effect from any stage undertaken (whether for the first or a subsequent time) in the academic year 2011/12, as approved by Senate on 8 Jun 2011.3. Additions to the list of exemptions in Appendix 10.
Version 008	1 Aug 2012: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Additions to the list of exemptions in Appendix 10.2. Appendix 1 (Integration of the NFAAR with University Regulation 15) revised for a change to Regulation 15.3(e), and also in associated text under “Assessment decision-making in general” — “Preparations”.3. Appendix 2 (Definitions) revised for minor changes relating to placement and study abroad arrangements, and also in associated text under “Assessment in the programme context” — “Standard and enhanced placements”.4. Minor revisions (passim) to update organizational references, roles, and nomenclature, and to cross-references to the Quality Assurance Code of Practice documents, and to web-sites, and particularly in a reference to QA16 in the text under “Assessment decision-making in general” — “Decision-making processes and responsibilities: Boards of Examiners for Programmes”.
