Repayment Terms

In the event that you resign or are dismissed you will be required to repay on a pro-rata basis any relocation assistance received from the University as follows:

- Less than one year from start of employment – 100% of relocation claim
- More than one year but less than 2 years from start of employment – 50% of relocation claim
- More than 2 years but less than 3 years from start of employment – 25% of relocation claim

If an expense is incurred and the move of residence does not occur the expense will have to be recovered over the same period it was paid.

Employee Declaration

I declare that the expenses claimed are in accordance with the rules and eligibility criteria set out in the University's Relocation Policy and that no other claim has been or will be made for this expenditure from the University or any other organisation.

I understand and agree to the Repayment Terms and authorise the University to deduct any outstanding amount which is repayable from my final salary if repayment terms have not been agreed in advance of my last day of employment.

UK Tax Assessment

In order for the expenses to be reimbursed free of tax and National Insurance contributions, you must:

- a. Incur the expense within five years of the date that you first arrived in the UK to work; and
- b. Not have been:
 - Present in the UK for any purpose in the two-year period prior to this arrival date; or
 - Resident in the UK for tax purposes (e.g. been in paid employment) in either of the two UK tax years prior to your arrival date*.

Please note that the tax year runs from 6 April to 5 April. If you do not provide the following information, the University will deduct UK tax and National Insurance contributions from the total sum claimed and you will need to contact HMRC to recover any tax you should not have paid.

1. Date you first arrived in the UK to work
2. Were you present in the UK for any purpose in the two year period prior to the date you first came to the UK to work (e.g. vacation, conference etc)
3. Were you resident in the UK for tax purposes (i.e. worked in the UK) in either of the two tax years prior to the date you first came to the UK to work

*Please note: you would be considered a resident if you were in the UK for 183 days or more in the relevant tax year.

If you answered 'yes' to Question 3, please complete the section below. If you answered 'no', please proceed to the next section.
