

October 2019 social media content

Tom Mason, Social Media Manager
Department of Communications

Introduction

This document outlines the key campaigns, news and content to be shared by the central University of Bath social media accounts in October.

You're invited to promote and share the material included in this document and download collateral to use on your own social media channels and digital communications activity.

New student tour videos

The Department of Communications has filmed two new vlogs with a student ambassador: a tour of both campus and town.

You are invited to share these videos on social media and any other relevant channels to support your marketing activity.

- Tour around Bath

Are you interested in filming a student tour for your department? Contact Tom for more information.

Be Well Week

Student Services is hosting Be Well Week between 14-18 October, a series of wellbeing events for students. These events include wellbeing walks, cooking classes, productivity workshops and mindfulness tasters.

You are invited to help promote these events by:

- Sharing the timetable of events
- Sharing the graphic for the activity

Public engagement activities

The latest Minerva Lecture takes place on 4 October. Emma Solomon-Moore in the Department for Health will be discussing how research can tackle inactivity in communities. You are invited to share a link to register for the event and this graphic. The hashtag is #MinervaLectures.

Picturing the Picturesque is the latest exhibition from The Edge. The exhibition, inspired by the RIBA collection, explores folly structures with a series of digital projections. You are invited to promote this by sharing this link and graphic.

The Autumn Careers & Placements Fair

The 2019 Autumn Fair from the Careers Service takes place between 17-18 October. Over 200 employers are expected to attend. Thursday is an 'all disciplines' day and Friday is STEM specific.

You are invited to promote the fair on social media to students by:

- Sharing the event page and graphic
- Sharing this video from the 2017 fair
- Encouraging students to download the Careers Fair app (more details on the event page)
- Sharing these top tips for the event
- Using the #bathautumnfair19 hashtag

Upcoming events

The Doctoral College is hosting its annual welcome reception for PhD students on 16 October. You're invited to promote this event to doctoral students by sharing the registration link.

On 9 October, the University is launching its VSimulators lab; an environmental chamber with projected virtual reality which can be used for research. You are invited to share this article promoting the project.

The University is launching its Our World Programme in October, a series of lectures to understand and reflect on global citizenship. You are invited to promote the lectures by sharing this article.

The IPR has launched a new series of events on the future of UK farming, wildlife loss and climate change. You are invited to promote the events by sharing this link and graphic.
