

Version History

Undergraduate Assessment Regulations

Current published version

25-26.1, published 18 December 2025

This version contains a substantive change to version 24-25.1 made by the Director of Academic Registry following delegation by Senate (11 November 2025):

- Students with outstanding assessment attempts after the main and supplementary assessment periods may choose to repeat the year (where eligible) rather than suspend to complete the outstanding assessment.

Previous versions

24-25.1, published 30 August 2024

This version contains non-substantive changes to version 23-24.1.1, agreed by Education Quality & Standards Committee (23 August 2024), including:

- Clarification about the use of unit marks and unit reassessment marks for condonement and reassessment.
- Clarification about the need for students to have passed a minimum number of credits in order to be eligible for condonement and reassessment.
- Updates to final stage IMC provisions in order to better reflect provisions in NFAAR-UG
- Minor updates to language to improve clarity.
- Correction of formatting, typos, and internal references.
- Removing former Appendix 2 from UGAR and publishing separately as guidance on applying the assessment regulations for Boards of Examiners.

23-24.1.1, published 22 September 2023

This version contains non-substantive changes to version 23-24.1, made by the Director of Academic Registry following delegation by Education Quality & Standards Committee (22 September 2023):

- Updates to flowcharts 2 and 4 to represent main regulations text more accurately.
- Updates to contextual introductory information.
- Minor updates to language consistency.
- Correction of formatting, typos, and internal references.

23-24.1, agreed by Senate, 19 April 2023